

What to Bring:

- A face-covering to be worn on land
- Campers should arrive wearing swimsuits underneath clothes everyday so they're ready to put wet suits on.
- Optional long-sleeve top to wear on water, like a rash guard (preferably non-cotton)
- A warm change of clothes for after sailing, including jacket, dry shoes/sandals, and a backup face-covering
- Water shoes with a heel strap & closed toe (Popular sailing camp shoes are old tennis shoes that can get wet, Keens, Crocs and rubber sneakers.)
- Snacks, lunch, and enough water for the full camp day
- Towel
- Sunglasses with string retainers and/or a brimmed cap
- Sunscreen
- Needed medications
- If you have your own life vest/wetsuit you may bring it.

What NOT to Bring:

- Nuts. We have campers who have life-threatening allergies. Please make sure your camper's lunch does not contain nuts.
- Cell phones (unless they remain in camper's backpack for the full day)

ACSC Will Provide:

- Instructors with CPR/First Aid and US Sailing Instructor Certifications
- Life vests
- Wet suits
- Sailboats
- Safety boats
